LOCATION

The Waterfront is located within Sovereign Harbour, northern Europe's largest composite marina complex with Eastbourne also being the second largest town in East Sussex.

4 miles from the A27 dual carriageway, 27 miles from Brighton and 50 miles from the M25. Eastbourne also has a direct mainline railway service to London Victoria.

The Waterfront can be reached from the A259 coastal road Pevensey Bay Road – look out for the brown signs 'Sovereign Harbour Village' and follow The Waterfront signs to the car park.

Free parking is available at The Waterfront in two car parks, both with a height restriction of 2.1 metres. The main Waterfront car park holds 350 general parking bays and 20 disabled parking bays; it can be reached from the A259 coastal road – Pevensey Bay Road – look out for the brown signs 'Sovereign Harbour Village' and follow The Waterfront signs to the car park.

The second car park holds 68 general parking bays and is available from Atlantic drive heading towards the rear of The Harvester restaurant and is situated on the left-hand side before reaching the Boatyard and Self store facilities at Sovereign Harbour Marina.

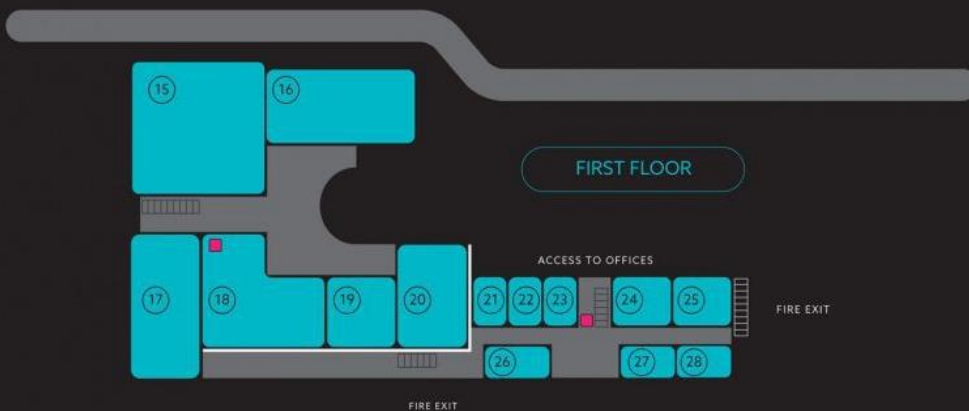

The Waterfront is accessible via bus number 5 and 5a, which runs between Sovereign Harbour North (Via Asda) and Sovereign Harbour South (Beatty Road) from Eastbourne's main town centre and railway station.
